My dear Mr Farmer

Mr Llanas wrote to Messrs Cloud-gate about the middle of the month, but having as yet received no answer, I am not aware whether they have written to you respecting the Dividends.

In case the payment of the money should be still deferred, I should feel greatly obliged, if you would have the Kindness to send me a Cheque for the three months pension due on the 1st of January, as I am sorry to say circumstances are rather pressing at present.

I suppose you received the Certificate which I forwarded to you.

With kindest remembrances

Believe me to remain Yours very sincerely

James Fitz de Lanies
